2/8/02 R02-01-011 Order Instituting Rulemaking regarding the implementation of the suspension of direct access pursuant to Assembly Bill 1X and Decision 01-09-060.

Summary: On February 5, 2002, Rick Gittings, City Manager of the City of San Marcos (City), had a telephone conference with David Gamson, advisor to Cmmr. Brown. Karl Schwarm, Administrative Analyst, and Susie Berlin, Counsel, for the City; and Glenn Prentice, Director of Utilities, George Hanson, Power Utilities Manager, and Lisa Urick, Counsel, representing the City of Corona, also participated in the conference. The City representatives stated that it is concerned that the draft decision fails to address how time and efforts invested in the community aggregation program will be handled, should retroactive suspension be adopted and community aggregation programs be shut down. The City representatives explained the distinction between its community aggregation program and direct access as an energy service provider. The City representatives stated that it is not opposed to the appropriate exit fees. The City representatives questioned whether any further action with regard to the implementation of direct access should not be tabled until such time as the Commission has fully explored what an appropriate exit fee should be.

Summary: On February 5, 2002, Leslie Katz, Regional Vice President for Sempra Energy (Sempra), met with Cmmr. Bilas in San Francisco. Also present were Kevin Coughlan, advisor to Cmmr. Bilas, and Bill Reed, Senior Vice President, and Billy Blattner, CPUC Relations Administrator, for Sempra. Katz explained that customers had made business decisions based on existing laws and regulations and that to change those conditions retroactively would have serious economic consequences. Katz explained further that if a contract between parties contained the right to assign or extend, that right must be preserved. Katz also asserted that if cost shifting is demonstrated and exit fees are implemented, those fees should be based on cost causation principles.

Summary: AUGMENTATION REQUIRED. On February 6, 2002, Mark Pawlicki representing Simpson Timber Company (Simpson) met with Cmmr. Bilas. Also present were Kevin Coughlan and Julie Fitch, advisors to Cmmr. Bilas; Jackson Mueller of Simpson; and Jerry Bloom and Lisa Cottle of White & Case, LLP, Simpson's outside counsel. Simpson representatives urged the Commission not to vote to suspend direct access service retroactively, as the proposed decision would do. Simpson representatives explained that adopting a July 1, 2001 suspension date would abrogate Simpson's existing direct access contract and would have a serious adverse economic impact on Simpson's operations. Simpson's representatives also commented that the Commission should make every attempt not to impose exit fees on direct access customers.
